

Build new social houses which will be sold privately after ten to fifteen years. If you live in one of these houses, you will have an automatic Right to Buy.

Try to reduce homelessness and rough sleeping. Focus on affordable housing and preventing homelessness.

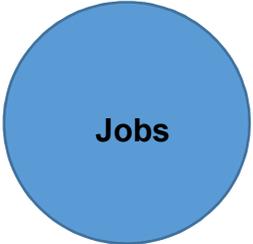

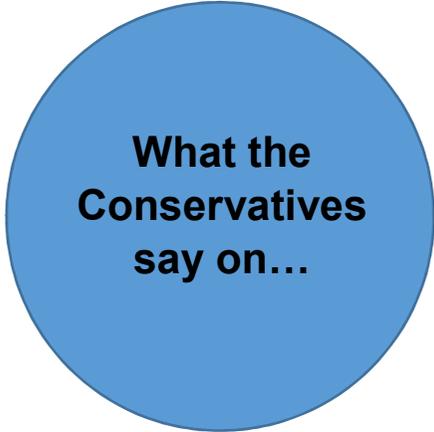

2017 Election.
What You Need To Know
Thanks to Katy Recina.

Improve Wales' trains and improve and increase train stations

Will try to make the home-buying process easier and cheaper.
Make it so that you can stay in your rented house for longer if you rent from a landlord.

Create new health and safety regulations at work for mental health conditions.

Promise to give employers advice and support to hire and keep disabled people and people with health conditions.

Provide disabled people looking for working with personal employment support.

Will make new laws to make sure employers treat people with mental health conditions fairly.

Will NOT keep the EU's Charter of Fundamental Rights: this protects right on: Dignity, Freedoms, Equality, Solidarity, Citizens' Rights, and Justice.

The rights of victims will be put into law. This will make clear what you should expect from police, courts and criminal justice system.

Review and improve disabled people's access in public places, including parking spaces and housing.

Work with providers of services, like those that provide electricity and gas and phone and internet lines, to reduce the extra costs that disability can create.

Will keep current Human Rights Act until UK leaves the EU, then the Conservatives will look at maybe keeping or getting rid of the current Human Rights Act.

Rights and Equality

What the Conservatives say on...

Disability

NHS spending will be increased by a minimum of £8bn in real terms over the next five years.

Introduce means testing – how much you earn or have saved – for care you receive at home. This will include the value of the house you own. Care will be free if you have £100,000 or less (including any home you own).

Will make it possible to get a doctor's appointment on weekends and in the evenings by 2019.

Introduce a new Mental Health law which makes mental health as important as physical health.

Health and care

The party will extend the current freedom to defer payments for residential care to those receiving care at home meaning no-one will have to sell their home in their lifetime to pay for care.