

2017 Election.
What You Need To Know
Thanks to Katy Recina.

Will look at how they can improve legal aid.

Rights and Equality

Labour will legislate to make terminal illness a protected characteristic under the Equality Act. This means we can't treat people unfairly if they have a terminal illness.

What Labour says on...

Disability

Will remove the barriers to opportunities and choices for people with disabilities.

Labour will incorporate the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities into UK law. This means more rights for people with disabilities.

Will put help for children with special educational needs and disabilities into training for teachers and non-teaching staff.

Labour Government will increase the social care budgets by a further £8 billion.

Pharmacy (Chemists) cuts will be stopped.

Health and care

The party will increase the Carer's Allowance by £11, to the level of jobseekers' Allowance.

Job seeker's allowance is currently £73.10.

The party will guarantee access to treatment within 18 weeks.

Will make the country the most "autism friendly" in the world, ending the social isolation for autistic people.

Will build at least 100,000 council and housing association homes a year for affordable rent or sale.

Labour will bring back housing benefit for 18-21 year olds.
Will allow long-term council tenancies.
Will get rid of the bedroom tax.

Help do develop Wales through better use of the Development Bank of Wales.

Homes

The party pledges to build thousands more low-cost homes reserved for first time buyers.

Labour will guarantee Help to Buy funding until 2027 to help you buy your first home.

The party will put local, first time buyers first in line to buy a new home built in their area.

What Labour says on...

Wales

Labour commits to increasing Wales' rail lines.

Jobs

Labour will guarantee working conditions by giving all workers equal rights from the first day at your job.

The manifesto commits to giving 'equalities reps' at work, those who monitor equality, rights.

The party will set to increase apprenticeships for people with disabilities, care leavers and veterans.

The party would raise the Minimum Wage to the level of the Living Wage for all workers aged 18 or over.