Introduction

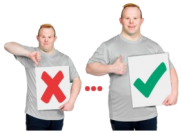

In 2017 All Wales People First decided to ask people how well they thought we were doing.

We wanted to know the things that were good.

The things that weren't very good.

And the things we need to do to get better,

This is called an evaluation.

3

We had three evaluations.

One for the members.

One for the staff.

And one for the other people we work with in Wales.

This report will tell you what was said.

And what we promise to do improve.

These promises are called pledges.
